About

Compass Point is an exciting range of wines that takes you on a journey through some of the best grape growing regions around the world, each one carefully selected to showcase the essence of its varietal style and origin.

Winemaking

Encapsulating the very essence of what gives Australian family-owned wineries a great reputation today, the wine is made by a thriving family owned winery in South Australia who have built an enviable reputation for consistently making quality wines that are generous in flavour and superbly drinkable. Grapes were selected from vineyards across the region with the natural variation that occurs between the vineyard sites and soil types producing parcels of fruit that are distinct in their aroma, taste and texture. They were machine harvested at night when they were at their optimum maturity. The harvested grapes were carefully vinified and given a short time in oak to produce a wine that is fresh and lively with good fruit characteristics.

Tasting Notes

Open, pour and explore this classic Chardonnay from South Eastern Australia. Generous and soft with ripe fruit flavours of peach and melon and a hint of vanilla. This ripe, fresh wine is well balanced with a long finish. Served chilled on its own or with roast chicken, creamy pasta dishes or herb salads.

About

Compass Point is an exciting range of wines that takes you on a journey through some of the best grape growing regions around the world, each one carefully selected to showcase the essence of its varietal style and origin.

Winemaking

The desert-like conditions in Mendoza allied to an extremely effective irrigation system have helped take Mendoza to the very top with their Malbec wines. Hailing from a winery founded in 1915, the grapes were hand-picked during the first week of April, before being fermented in temperature controlled tanks to bring the perfect balance to this excellent wine.

Tasting Notes

Open, Pour & Explore this classic Mendoza Malbec. Complex aromas of dark berry fruits, alongside soft hints of chocolate, coffee and tobacco. This generous wine is well balanced with intense flavours of red and black fruits and a long finish, ripe tannins confirm that this is a wine that will age well. Serve on it's own or with red meat dishes, this opulent red pairs particularly well with barbecued steak.
