Vineyards

El Tesoro de las Montañas means 'The Treasure of the Mountains', as the dry and dusty area gives no clues to the wonderful wine it can produce. The grapes are sourced from a family owned winery in Agrelo, Luján de Cuyo, which is considered to have the best terroir in Mendoza, for growing Malbec. It is made by María Isabel Mijares, an internationally acclaimed winemaker.

Winemaking

Grapes are handpicked from selected 30+ year old vines. Traditional fermentation is followed by the malolactic fermentation, before the wine is skilfully blended.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of ripe black fruit, leather and tobacco spice. Full-bodied with flavours of blackberry, damson and roasted spicy notes of pepper and cinnamon. Ripe tannins provide structure and length in the mouth.

Ideal with cheese, stews, red meat and richly flavoured dishes. Try with an Argentine 'Asado' for authentic BBQ inspired food.
